

QRF Internship

Quail Run Farm Seasonal Internship

INTERNSHIP OVERVIEW

The QRF seasonal intern will get to experience the ins-and-outs of managing a multi-animal regenerative farm. From helping with morning chores, to assisting with business development and marketing tasks, the QRF intern will get first-hand knowledge of what it takes to operate a farm-to-fork local farming operation.

Weekly activities might include:

- Assisting with the animal husbandry of Quail Run's 500+ animals, including feeding and watering animals daily; animals include cattle, horses, pigs, goats, chickens, turkeys, bees, fish
- Support at weekly farmers markets and the on-farm market
- Helping in the greenhouse, garden, orchard and other produce
- Assisting with agritourism including cabin rentals, glamping, yurts, farm tours, and other events

QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience with or strong interest in working on a farm
- Able to do manual labor, including strenuous outdoor work; interns should be able to carry a 50lb feed bag, square bale of hay, or filled water buckets and work on their feet for hours at a time
- No major allergies to animals or outdoor flora
- Great attitude that enjoys working as part of a team
- Prior farm, construction, maintenance, or hospitality experience is a strong plus, but not required
- Willing and able to show true hospitality and customer service to farm guests and patrons

PAY AND BENEFITS

- The primary benefit is the opportunity to work as part of a dynamic team committed to providing our local community with great organic food and memorable farm experiences. You will learn how to care for animals and run a real farm.
- In addition to the educational and mentorship opportunities, we also provide interns and volunteers with housing (if needed), and meals. We do family dinner every night, and reimburse for groceries for other meals.
- Over 40 hours, we pay $12.50 per hour.
